

The Gantt chart displays the progress of two tasks, A and B, across three phases: Planning, Execution, and Review. The timeline is marked from 0 to 100% completion, with a vertical line at 50% completion.

- Task A (Orange bars):
 - Phase 1 (Planning): 0% to 10% completion.
 - Phase 2 (Execution): 10% to 30% completion.
 - Phase 3 (Review): 30% to 100% completion.
- Task B (Purple bars):
 - Phase 1 (Planning): 0% to 10% completion.
 - Phase 2 (Execution): 10% to 20% completion.
 - Phase 3 (Review): 20% to 25% completion.

The chart indicates that Task A is 100% complete, while Task B is 5% complete. The vertical line at 50% completion highlights the progress of both tasks relative to the overall project timeline.
